ROSE CROIX AT WORK

Exemplified the Beautiful Fifteenth Degree.

There Degree Today.

Beginning at 9:30 yesterday morning in the Scottish Rite Temple, the sixth dogree was exemplified; as were also the to postpone to some day later, probably street railway company here, went to the Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Stoutemeyer of 230 saventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, June 21, or about one month away. twelfth and thirteenth. During the foregoing degrees Mr. Charles M. Jones, venerable master, assisted by Henry Wallenstein and Fred Stuckey, exemplified the work. At 3 o'clock the fourteenth degree was gived, Mr. Ed Goldberg presiding. This was finished at o o'clock, when an adjournment was taken until the evening when the most beautiful of all the degrees was exemplified in all the gorgeousness and beauty of ancient oriental courts. The fifteenth degree, Rose Croix, was opened in due form by Mr. George L. Pratt, wise master. This degree is known as the Knight of the East and West. The ecene is one of history and the portrayal as given by the Wichita Consistory i magnificent. The costumes are of the richest and have the bright and rich colors such as are worn by Orientals. It represents a court scene in the time of Cyrus, King of the Persians. James H. McCall, as King Cyrus, is visited by Zorrobabel, the High Priest of the Children of Israel, who presents himself to King Cyrus to obtain the treasures which had been taken from them in former years by the ePrejans. The whole scene is acted Finally Zorrobabel secures that which he had implored for, and departs with joy in his heart. Mr. James H. McCail presided over the court as King Cyrus, ably assisted by Mesers, A. M. Goldstandt, S. F. Hayden, J. Z. Hoffman, E. E. Hieckier, F. W. Olfver and F. H. Kitching, Mr. Charles M. Jones had the part of Zorrohabel. The main dialogue was conducted by Messra McCall, Bleckley and Jones. The music last evening was very fine and helped to make the exemplification of the degrees all the more attractive. The principals in the musical program last evening were Miss Eudora Woods, Miss Alice Goldberg and Miss Edna Goldstandt. All the music is arranged and under the personal supervision of Mr. Henry Huttman.

Mr. J. Giles Smith is captain of the The Rose Croix will this morning finish one. There were other days when thoustheir work by conferring the fifteenth, ands of dollars were paid out in Rice
